COMMENTS FROM THE TOWN MANAGER'S OFFICE

The assessment work for 1964 has been completed and the books are being added to get the total valuation of the town for this year. As soon as the total value is known it can be divided into the amount raised at town meeting and the tax rate for this year will be determined. It appears now that the tax rate will be the same as it was last year. The revaluation of the commercial property resulted in a net decrease in value. The decrease is about $40,000 in valuation. This loss will take a good part of the value that would be gained from new construction and improvements to existing property.

The excise tax books for 1965 have been received and anyone wanting to get an early excise tax may do so now. Some of the people with special plates like to get their excise tax paid early and send for their new registration. Early excise tax and registration is also convenient for people who will not be here this winter or part of the winter.

Twenty-seven names have been called to the voting list since it was reprinted the first of June. This is an election year and everyone not only has a right but a duty to vote. It would be helpful if persons planning to register could do it some time this month or next month. Of course there will be some last minute registration but that is to be expected. Anyone who registers any time the office is open. If it is not possible to get to the office during the regular office hours, I will be available most evenings to register new voters.

Michael Houlahan

Mrs. Burdick Pierce, Broad St., is teaching the sub-primary class in Andover.

The Sunsette Rebekah Lodge will meet Monday evening at 8 o'clock. There will be a tasting party after the meeting. Members are asked to bring something for a sunshine box.

Word has been received from Dr. George B. Healy, Dean of the Faculty at Bates College, that Kent Taylor, Bethel, has achieved Dean's List standing for his academic work during the last half of the 1963-64 school year.

Among the 1964 Gould Academy graduates leaving for institutions of higher learning this fall are: Christine Stevens, Maine Medical Center, Portland; Linda Paine, Vermont College, Montpelier, Vt.; Timothy Harnage, Bridgton Academy; Donald Young, Fryeburg Academy; Linda Curtis, Wilfred Academy of Beauty Culture, Boston; John Young, Boston University; Charlene Swann, Laramie College, Portland; Lorraine Eames, Burdett College, Boston; Margaret Morgan, University of Maine, Orono; Judy Judkins, University of Maine, Orono; Carol Flint, Thomas Junior College, Waterville; Cindy Freeman, Bowdoin College, Brunswick; Corey Brown, University of Maine, Orono.

BETHEL PLAYERS HOLD FIRST MEETING

Bethel Players opened their season with a meeting on Tuesday at the home of Barbara Bryant.

After a very successful first year with two productions boosting the Bethel Community Fund by $800, the Players are enthusiastic with plans for the forthcoming year. A reading committee, consisting of Margaret Bean, Sue Farrar and Clinton Jenkins, will select a play and a director by the next meeting. A date for try-outs will be set at that time. With the membership drive now in progress, it is hoped that many new faces will join the group at the next meeting.

As part of future meetings, the group is considering holding dramatic workshops for the enjoyment and education of its members.

The group voted to serve as sponsors for the Bethel Teen Council, and John Greenleaf has agreed to serve as representative to the Council.

The next meeting will be held on Tuesday, October 6, at 8:00 p. m. at the home of Barbara Bryant.

Mr. and Mrs. Michael O'Donnell and daughters, Kathy and Jill, have returned to Orono after spending the summer at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Addison C. Saunders, and have resumed their studies at the University of Maine.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Brown were in Hartford, Conn., Tuesday. They were accompanied by Mrs. Brown's mother, Mrs. Ada Swann, of Millfield, N. H., who will spend some time with her daughter and family. Mr. and Mrs. James Bates.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Adams have moved into the apartment in the Foster house on Main Street. Mrs. Adams is teaching second grade in the Bethel Public School and Mr. Adams is teaching social studies at Stephens High School in Rumford, and will also coach skiing.

SUNDAY PICK-UP OF MAIL STARTING SEPT. 20

According to an announcement by Postmaster Earlton Paine effective Sunday, Sept. 20, better mail service will be provided as there will be a collection of all out going mail at 4:30 p. m. from the box in front of the Bethel post office. This could mean 24 hour earlier delivery of all out going mail, for in the past the last collection was at 5:15 on Saturday for the week end.

OXFORD COUNTY DEMOCRATS TO MEET

The Bethel Democratic Town Committee will be hosts for the regular monthly meeting of the Oxford County Democratic Committee on Wednesday, September 23, at the Congregational Church. The meeting will be preceded by a Harvest Supper in the church dining room at 6:30 p. m. All interested persons will be welcome to attend this supper and meeting. Come and meet the candidates!

REPUBLICANS PLAN ALL CANDIDATES' NIGHT AT RUMFORD, OCTOBER 7

The Oxford County Republican Committee is making plans for an All Candidates' Night to be held Wednesday, October 7th in Rumford Congressman Clifford G. McIntire, now running for the U. S. Senate, and Kenneth McLeod, candidate for U. S. Congress, will be the honored guests. All Republican County candidates will also be present.

The following committees have been appointed: General arrangements: Malcolm White, and Stuart Martin of Rumford, and John Black of Dixfield, Super Co-Chairman: James K. Dickson, Mexico and Arland Farrar, Rumford. Special Invitation: Louise Lincoln, Bethel Publicity: Leland Brown, Bethel High School Bands: Julian Israelson, Rumford Teen Age Republicans: Ralph Caldwell, Rumford. Sound Equipment: Tom Richardson, Rumford. Program Chairman: Fred Hanson.

Further details will be announced at a later date.

Failure to dim lights can easily cause a serious accident, the State Police tell us. There is no excuse for this violation of the law. Be sure that your mind is on your driving and that you never fail to observe this important rule of the road.

The Week in Oxford County

The scheduled Rumford Hospital Fair for this year has been cancelled. The Executive Committee of the Community Hospital voted this action at a meeting Monday morning. Due to the current business situation caused by the striking Oxford Paper Co., it was decided not to hold the affair which has been sponsored by the Hospital Auxiliary for 27 consecutive years.

The Carter Gospel Team of Wallingford, Conn., are conducting special evening services at the East Summer Congregational Church September 15 through September 20. The group includes Rev. Edward A. Carter, Mrs. Ruth Carter and Mrs. Treatie Thumith.

Boy Scouts, Rangely District, will hold the Fall Campfire Friday thru Sunday. The location is on Route 108 between Canton and West Peru about one mile from Canton Village.

Construction to improve the Fickett Ridge Causeway road in Norway is underway. The road will be widened and made safer for travelling.

FINE MAINE HUNTING IS THE OUTLOOK

With Labor Day past, it won't be long before sportsmen will be starting another hunting season. The outlook in Maine is for an excellent season for all game birds and animals, according to Maine Fish and Game Commissioner Donald T. Spers.

Several factors have contributed to the "excellent outlook" being given by the Maine Fish and Game Department. Last winter was one of the mildest on record, consequently the winter mortality was the rule. The late spring and early summer resulted in good nesting conditions for the coming year. And we are presently in the midst of a bumper crop of fruits and nuts of all kinds which will have the game well fattened up by fall.

As the result of the poor weather of 1963 and the poor 1963 hunting conditions, last fall's deer kill was below normal. Hunters in game kills are to be expected, however, and the deer kill is expected to return back to its normal level this year.

Maine game warden and biologist to the fish and game department has available a new deer hunter's guide. Copies of this book and hunting regulations booklets may be obtained by writing to the Fish and Game Dept. office in Augusta.

And warden says "Common sense hunters, hunting accidents can be avoided by using a little common sense. Every hunter has a big responsibility to himself and to his companions when he's in the field with a gun.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR...

September 15, 1964

Dear Editor:

Songo Pond has been a source of so much pleasure and enchantment to us for eight inspiring summers that we are moved to submit the appended verses as a tribute to its beauty. We leave it annually with sadness despite the fact that it affords so many pleasant memories during wintry days and nights. The beams of the full moon in August, that light up its surface with a day like brightness, must be seen to be appreciated. The surrounding hills and gleaming pines enhance its attractiveness considerably. In a world of chaos and strife, this pleasant mountain lake meanders on to remind us that the verities of life are real and indestructible. In its presence one can draw in spiration and forget the ugliness that abounds in our midst on a world-wide scale.

On the lighter side, I recommend the music on the radio. I never have an opportunity to listen to it during the winter. The summer listening period is a real education. Recently I heard "Jamaica Joe," "Snap Your Fingers" and "Clinging Vine." "Jamaica Joe" will suffice. Its lyrics are as follows: "Jamaica Joe, watch him go!" "Jamaica Joe, watch him go!" (ad nauseam). It is akin to "Yeah, Yeah, Yeah" but worse. It is amazing how American music has deteriorated. It sounds like an agonizing cry from the African forests. The singer is either bemoaning the love that he has just lost or expressing agonizing fears that he will lose the love he has just won.

It is all in one key and its anguish is penetrating. There is an exception in the area, of

Traveling Shutter-Bugs

Shutter-bugs are having a field day on Canadian National's new scenic route, operating through the Canadian Rockies.

With the view afforded from the upper deck of Canada's only full-length glass-enclosed passenger cars, camera shutters are clicking away.

The majestic and sometimes bewildering scenery of the Canadian Rockies is being served up in astonishing quantities for CN Transcontinental train travelers.

Canadian National Railway's track maintainers, the Panoramix and Super Continental both equipped with scenic cameras are giving passengers a sight they have never been able to see or photograph from a train before.

On its westbound trip, the Panoramix is the country's only Transcontinental passenger train to make a complete day-light trip through the Rockies.

The schedule of the Panoramix, first new cross-country passenger train since 1963, calls for it to pull out of Jasper, Alta., at 1:00 a. m., and from then on the steady 525-mile passage through the mountain valleys begins, ending at Vancouver the same day at 9:30 p. m.

It's generally believed that a Jasper-Vancouver trip is through only one range of mountains, while in fact it is through three: The Rockies, the Selkirk Range and the Coast Range.

On the mainline 17 miles west of Jasper is Yellowhead which, with an altitude of 2,717 feet, is the highest point on the line. Beyond Yellowhead it is a slow descent to the Pacific Coast.

It is just beyond Red Pass Junction, after crossing the Fraser River, that Mount Robson appears. Here the train stops for a few minutes so that passengers may have a leisurely view of the tallest peak in the Canadian Rockies. Towering 12,972 feet, Mount Robson, often called the Monarch of the Canadian Rockies, is the embodiment of all that man's mind thinks a mountain ought to be.

There are some 27 major peaks of interest on the Panoramix's trip from Jasper to Vancouver, each framed by the broad picture window of the train from sunup to sundown. F.N.S.

CAPITOL COMMENTS

CONGRESSMAN

CLIFFORD G. MCINTIRE

MAINE, SECOND DISTRICT

There are, among the various bills introduced into law this year, several measures that have a particular interest to our State of Maine. I would like to comment on two of these.

LAND AND WATER CONSERVATION BILL. This bill presents legislation that will give the State and Federal Governments joint authority to acquire and develop outdoor recreation facilities, subject to approval of the Federal Council of an expanding population. This has importance for Maine because outdoor recreation is the backbone for our State.

A fund would be set up to carry the program forward. Financing for this fund will come from 3 primary sources: (1) a system of ad valorem and sales tax for persons who utilize outdoor recreation areas managed by the Federal Government; (2) proceeds from the sale of Federal real property under the Reclamation Property Act; and (3) monies from that portion of the Federal sector funds tax which is derived from sales and to recreation.

In operation 50% of the funds appropriated will be made available to the States for development of recreational facilities.

by Federal Departments and Agencies for similar purposes. The funds will be used to match State expenditures on a 50-50 basis of matching in the carrying forward of approved plans, outdoor recreation planning, land acquisition, and development of projects.

Maine will find this authority particularly helpful in developing these lands it already has acquired for outdoor recreation, land that now will become available for outdoor recreation purposes within the next few years.

NURSES TRAINING BILL.

This bill, now Public Law 88-281 provides a total of $247.6 million to be used in providing Federal assistance in the construction of nursing schools and for a student nurse loan program. Our State of Maine, a state with no sister States, will find this legislation making an important contribution by raising the standards of nursing care right now. For instance, we are experiencing a 50% shortage of professional nurses. It would require an additional 1,000 nurses every day through 1970 to take care of current and immediate future needs.

The Nurses Training Act will provide some $90 million in Federal-State matching funds to build and remodel nursing schools, with the Federal Government paying up to two thirds of the cost. In addition, there will be set up a student loan program for nurses, with $85 million being used to "forgive" up to half of a student nurse's debt, if the nurse later serves 5 years service to a public hospital or institution. The bill also provides $54 million in grants for improving and expanding nursing school programs and another $50 million to pay for a five-year extension of a current program of advanced training for professional nurses.

EXTRA: Expected Soon to be signed into law is a bill which among other things, provides $55,000,000 for grants for public libraries. This total includes $25 million for public library services and $30 million for public library construction. Many libraries in Maine have expressed a keen interest in this provision.

WMTW-TV TO FEATURE

NORTHERN N. E. TALENT

The Greater Bethel Chamber of Commerce wishes to announce that beginning September 30, Mt. Washington TV, Inc., Channel 8, will be presenting, each week for 30 weeks, a half hour television show featuring talent from various Northern England communities.

This program will be entitled "Talent Spotlight." Since it will be in the form of a salute to a community, WMTW requests that the Chamber assist them in the search for talent in the Bethel area by notifying organizations, theatre groups, schools of dance, choral groups, or any specific talent of this opportunity to appear on the show. Write to them in care of "Talent Spotlight" at the station so that they may notify them about the time and place for auditions scheduled in your community. The mailing address is: Talent Spotlight, WMTW-TV, Channel 8, Poland Spring, Maine.

VILLAGE SCHOOLS

LUNCH MENU

Week of Sept. 21:

Monday: juice, American chop suey, string beans, cheese slices, spice cake, bread and butter, milk.

Tuesday: baked ham, mashed potato, peas, pineapple slices, bread and butter, milk.

Wednesday: baked beans, hot dogs, carrot-cabbage salad, apple sauce, rolls, and milk.

Thursday: veg-beef stew, crackers, juice, cookies, bread and butter, milk.

Friday: tuna pie, mashed potato, fruit pie, cake, bread and butter, milk.

An integral feature of "Talent Spotlight," of particular interest to the Chamber of Commerce, will be a filmed salute to the community. WMTW-TV, Channel 8, will send a film crew into your town to work closely with the Chamber of Commerce to showcase your community in the Northern New England area.

MR. AND MRS. YATES CELEBRATE 50th ANNIVERSARY

A day evening, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hume Yates, celebrating the 50th anniversary of their marriage, the "Estees Yates." The couple had left several greeting cards to their friends, "the real day" he must have thought Christmas had arrived early as he had close to a pack of cards that day. Morning callers were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hayes and Lloyd Davis, all of Bryant Pond. Then we went to "Blake's Country Kitchen," for our anniversary dinner. Of course while we were there someone called and left a beautiful bouquet of sweet peas with a lovely yellow rose in the center. Saturday evening our youngest daughter, Laura and family, of Bethel, visited us also. Mr. Carroll, and two sons, Jeff and Gary, were here and brought a lovely card. Laura brought a golden plaque of the four seasons of the year—in a gold frame. The cards were beautiful and had much money in them—we were given a TV set by our eight children—4 sons and 4 daughters—a gift of first—we would certainly hate to part with. "Those along with 24 grandchildren and 14 great grandchildren all help to make life worthwhile. God saw fit two years ago to take one beautiful little granddaughter from the circle but otherwise the children—grand and great grandchildren are all with us for which we thank God from the bottom of our hearts. They are our "Best and Biggest Blessing." We wish to thank each and every one who remembered us in any way on September 12, 1964. God Bless you all—Eva and Estees.

GOULD FOOTBALL PROSPECTS NOT CONSIDERED BRIGHT

Coach Bob Scott, starting his 36th season of football coaching, greeted a squad of fifty incoming freshmen. This group contains thirteen lettermen: Rolfe Foxwell and Randy Christian, centers; Allan Twitcheil (co-captain), Charlie Rungels and Paul Vachon, guards; Kevin Wight (co-captain), the Rles; Les Stevens and Jack Andrews, ends; Mike Christian, quarterback; Allan Swan and George Nickerson, halfbacks and Dennis Wheeler and Ray Atwood, fullbacks.

Up from last year's J. V. squad and ready to help the Husky cause will be ends Charlie Jacobs, Ken Morse, Alan Burgess and Don Dixon, tackles Al Lovejoy, Bob Bartholomew, Theron Clough, Daryl Young, Mark Walker and Ron Smiley. Allen Walker is a guard while the returning J. V. backs are: Barry Salway, Earl Tyler, Lee Vail, Brian Buck, Tom Fadden, Steve Trunkard, Bob Remington and Dick Streetner.

New candidates who are expected to help are ends Glen Langley, Steve Mahler and Mike Cluke, guards Roger Paquette and back Bruce Taylor.

First week indications are that none of the freshmen have sufficient talent to break into the varsity squad.

This is the first year of the new Mountain Valley League with five of the Huskies seven opponents being new to the schedule. When asked to comment on the team's prospects in the new league Coach Scott couldn't generate very much optimism. Citing the youthfulness of his squad, only two of whom have reached their eighteenth birthday, and the lack of depth in seasoned two-way players. The squad will also lack the speed which Coach Scott feels is necessary to be a consistent winner. Assistant coaches this year are: Paul Bailey, Joe Roderick and Bill Cousins.

Schedule: Sept. 20, at Lyndon Institute; Oct. 3, Livermore Falls; Oct. 10, at Wilton Academy; Oct. 17, Mexico; Oct. 24, Jay; Oct. 31, Farmington; Nov. 7, at Hall Dale.

ALDEN R. MASON

Alden R. Mason died unexpectedly Wednesday morning at his home in Orléans. He was born in Jefferson, N. H., July 10, 1876, the son of Alden F. and Sarah Forbes Mason.

As a young man he taught school in Orléans, later graduated from Bates College in 1899 and was admitted to the bar in 1900. After spending a few years in the West, he returned to the Mason Farm in Orléans in 1912, where he, with his two sons, operated a fruit and vegetable farm. His wife, Hulda, died eight years ago.

He is survived by two sons, Floyd M. and Leland E., two grandchildren, a cousin, and several nieces and nephews.

Funeral services will be held Friday at 2 p. m. from the Greenleaf funeral home. Rev. Clifford Law, officiating. Burial will be at the Hillside Cemetery, Jefferson, N. H.

ISAAC W. DYER II
Services were held Sunday in Portland for Isaac Watson Dyer II, who died in Janssen, Alaska, Sept. 5.

Mr. Dyer was born in Salt Lake City, Utah, March 6, 1914, son of the late Isaac and Margaret Rundkrant Dyer. Educated in Portland schools, Mr. Dyer was graduated from Bowdoin College and received his law degree from Boston University. For several years he practiced law in Maine, first at Bethel and later at Rockland. He had been teaching in high schools in the Midwest and in Alaska recently.

Mr. Dyer leaves two sons, James H., Winthrop, and Isaac W. III, Portland; and a brother, Mr. Richard, Henton Falls.
